The Roxburghe Hotel Hogmanay House Party

Firmly established as one of Scotland's finest country house hotels, The Roxburghe Hotel & Golf Course occupies a peaceful location set within 500 acres of wooded parkland, beside the River Teviot and close to the market town of Kelso.

Under the direction of the Duke and Duchess of Roxburghe, this country house has been converted into a luxury hotel of great charm and character, whilst retaining an intimate friendly atmosphere which our guests find particularly welcoming.

Our Christmas and New Year House Parties are well established, blending a mix of relaxation, entertainment, delicious food and fine wines.
